Chamber of Commerce Has Annual Banquet

City Election Is Tuesday

$10,000 Bonds To Be Passed Upon Canyon Citizens

Money Would Be Used to Match Federal Aid on 66 Blocks of Streets of Canyon

USE WPA LABOR

Work Cannot Be Done Unless Bonds Are Approved by Voters

The special election for the city of Canyon on a $10,000 bond issue will be held next Tuesday, Nov. 30.

The bond issue is proposed in order that the city secure an allotment of $17,676 from WPA for hard surfacing 66 blocks in Canyon. The city will not be in position to accept this money from WPA unless the bond issue is approved by the citizens in this election.

The election will be held at the City Hall. C. H. Jarrett will be the presiding judge; Oscar Hunt and John Fry, judges; Joe Black and J. P. Hix, clerks.

The bond issue is called by the city commission because all WPA work in the county will be completed about the first of January. Unless work is started on Buffalo Dam by the time the present projects are completed, it will be up to the city and the county to furnish enough work to keep the men on the present WPA projects through the winter. This would be done without the aid of the government. Neither the city or the county has the money necessary to keep all of the men at work without the federal aid.

If the bond issue is approved by the citizens, all gaps in the present paving will be hard surfaced. The connection will be completed in front of the public school buildings as far south as Seventh Avenue. The loop will be paved starting at the Duflot home on Seventh, east to the C. H. Jarrett home, and north to Fourth Avenue in front of the Administration building. The balance of the money will be spent in hard surfacing the north and south streets between Fourth and Seventh Avenues.

The city has only $49,000 bonded indebtedness outstanding at the present time, which is an outstanding record considering the large amount of public improvements that are enjoyed by the citizens of Canyon.

All citizens are urged to go to the polls and express their opinion next Tuesday regarding this bond issue.

State Highway Will Not Improve Road In Palo Duro Park

The State Highway Commission has recinded its order to take over the road in the Palo Duro State Park. The recinding order was issued Friday because of the charge made to enter the park.

The State Highway Commission took over the maintenance of roads of state parks several months ago. Work has started on several of the parks, but nothing was done at Palo Duro.

It is presumed here that the Highway Commission is awaiting the action of the State Parks Board as to the title of the land before the state decides to spend any money on this road.

Rev. S. A. Thomas Comes to Methodist Church Here

Pastor at Tulia During Past Four Years, and Was Successful in Other Methodist Churches

Rev. Sam A. Thomas is the new pastor of the local Methodist Church. He comes from Tulia to succeed Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, who has served here for four years, and is transferred to Slaton. Rev. C. W. Foote, a former pastor in Canyon, is transferred from Slaton to Tulia.

Rev. M. M. Beavers, another former pastor, was transferred from Lamesa to Hereford, where he was pastor before coming to Canyon. Rev. J. O. Haymes of Amarillo was retained as presiding elder.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas have three children. Their son, Sam Thomas, Jr., entered W. T. this fall as a freshman. The other two are in high school.

Mr. Thomas joined the conference when it met in Canyon 12 years ago. Since that time he has had great success as a pastor. His first charge was Dodsonville Circuit where he stayed four years, building a parsonage, two churches, and paying out the debt on two other churches. At Mobeetie he built a new church and parsonage. He then went to Dimmitt and later to Sudan where a church and educational building were erected. Transferred to Tulia, his work has been very successful. All obligations of the church have been paid, and the membership increased 192.

Mrs. Thomas is an accomplished musician and worker in all departments of the church.

The family will arrive in Canyon this week and Rev. Thomas will preach Sunday morning and evening at the local church.

Hinton Goes Before Regents Meeting In Interest WT Change

Carl Hinton, manager of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, left Tuesday for Huntsville where he will appear before the Board of Regents for Teachers Colleges to urge the scope of work in W. T. be broadened.

The Amarillo group has been making a study of this problem in conjunction with the ex-students of W. T. It is recommended that the name of the college be changed, dropping the word "Teachers," and that courses be added which do not require the student to take courses in education when they do not wish to become teachers.

Mr. Hinton has gathered material from over the Plains section which expresses the sentiment of the people of the Panhandle on this problem.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cox were in Abilene Friday and Saturday to attend the homecoming of A. C. C. They have three sons and their daughter- in-law in the college this year. All will be home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

T. C. Thompson was a business caller in Dallas over the week end.

Old Clothes For Community Chest Collected Monday

The Old Clothes drive being sponsored by the City Federation for use of the Community Chest during the winter will be launched Monday afternoon, Nov. 29.

Everyone having used clothes that they wish to give away are asked to put them into a bundle and place it outside the door or entry so that it may be seen when cars go down the streets gathering the bundles; or if it is more convenient, call 227 and a representative will call.

The Commeunity Chest needs these donations of used clothing for distribution during the winter months, so everyone who has items of wearing apparel that are yet good enough to be worn are urged to give them to this worthy drive.

The distribution of the clothing will again be in charge of Mrs. Charles Stratton and the store room will be on the second floor of the First National Bank Building.

R. E. Foster suffered a fractured bone is his right leg last week when he was caught between the bumpers of two cars at his filling station. He is improving satisfactorily.

Large Crowd of Citizens Think About the Future

Officers of Chamber Are Named Thursday Night at Annual Banquet of Organization

CONDRON IS HEAD

Work of Future Is Outlined As Citizens Get Together

Ninety-five citizens of Canyon attended the annual banquet of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce which was held Thursday night at the First Christian Church.

W. A. Warren, retiring president of the organization, presided as toastmaster.

In making a report on the finances and accomplishments of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year, Mr. Warren called attention to the fact that things "just don't happen" in towns. Some one has to be behind every movement that means anything to the development of the community. The street lights at Christmas time "don't just happen to be put up." Trade trips do not happen without someone working on them. Other civic accomplishments must have some organization back of them or they are not put over.

Is Clearing House

The Chamber of Commerce is the clearing house for the community, stated Mr. Warren. The organization has put over a large program, considering the small amount of dues which have been collected. No membership drive was made last year and all contributions received were voluntary. A drive for more members was suggested for the coming year.

The outstanding accomplishment of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year was the water conservation movement. $50,000,000 has been approved by Congress for the program in the dust bowl, and if the work meets the expectation of the administration it is believed that at least sixty million dollars more will be put into water conservation next year.

Special music was furnished by Marshall Riemenschneider, E. Burroughs, Jr., Hudson Prichard, Anna Ruth Smith, Martha Frances Campbell and Grant Sharman.

Future of Canyon

In the absence of S. H. Condron, Clyde Warwick was called upon to discuss the future of Canyon. He

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day is here once more. It is the day upon which all citizens should glance through the 365 pages of the past year and take into consideration the many, many blessings which have come to them during that period of time.

The pessimist can never find much for which he may be thankful. He looks upon the cloudless day and wonders when the thunder shower is going to break. He looks upon the health and happiness and prosperity that he may have enjoyed during the past year and complains that his paths have not fallen along more pleasant lines.

The optimist can always find many blessings to have been his. Thanksgiving is his real day. He rejoices in the opportunity that it offers. Looking upon the cheerful side of life at all times, the optimist naturally rejoices that a day has been set aside when he may review the blessings that have been his, and rejoice that he has been so pleasantly treated by the laws of nature and the laws of man thruout the year.

The optimist is thankful that the steady trend toward prosperity which started more than a year ago is improving day by day.

He rejoices that the lot of most people in the nation is a little better today than it was a year ago.

He rejoices that the farmer has raised an abundant crop in most parts of the nation during 1936, and that he has received a fair price for his crop. With the purchasing power of the farmer partially restored, chances are much improved for a return to a real prosperity.

He is thankful that bitter political strife has not been the part of daily life during the past year, and that peace reigns throughout the nation.

He is thankful that labor difficulties have largely subsided, and that the wheels of industry are again rolling, and that from all appearance unemployment is not such a vexing problem as a year ago.

He is thankful that the nation's health has been so uniformly good during the past year. The first Thanksgiving Day was held because disease and death had swept over the small band of Pilgrims who came to this country, taking so many of their number by death. Those remaining met to give thanks to God for having spared their lives. Today we have a resourceful and intelligent public health department in this nation which is alert at all times to the dangers of disease. Through this intelligent service the average life of citizens of this nation has been greatly lengthened.

While war and dangers of war are on every hand, the American citizen is thankful today that the nation's leaders are using every power they possess to steer this nation's affairs so that we shall not become embroiled in another destructive war—destructive both as to human life and the criminal waste of wealth.

He will be thankful in the realization that the American government has a big, warm heart for those who are less fortunate than the average of our citizens; that throughout the trying and difficult times no one was allowed to starve or freeze; that every citizen will soon be given an opportunity to make a living for himself and his family.

He will return thanks for an administration in this nation which is peace-loving, and that the chief executive is determined to keep peace for the people of this nation; that this nation shall take its place as the leader to preserve peace in a world which is infected with those who worship at the shrine of war.

Yes, the people of this nation have many things for which they may be thankful. The greatest of all is the thankfulness for the fact that they live in the United States of America.

YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Every citizen should consider well the fact that things just don't happen in community building. Natural resources have been a curse rather than a blessing to many communities which have failed to take advantage of those resources.

It is a well known fact that the greatest communities—and usually the largest communities—are those which have been built in spite of all the handicaps that man and nature could throw in their pathways.

Nearly 100 citizens thought about local affairs in the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce Thurday night. Most of them were amazed that the Chamber of Commerce had accomplished so much, considering that it had so little with which to work. So few had contributed to the good work. Such a small number of the community have been sufficiently interested in the Chamber of Commerce that they have taken an active interest in the work of the organization.

Citizens of the community have largely taken the attitude of coasting along, believing that civic ideals were worthless, and city planning was hopeless while the depression was on, and while the dust clouds were rolling over the Plains. Fortunately that does not apply to all citizens. Fortunately the fire of ambition to improve Canyon has been kept burning by the small group of men and women comprising the Chamber of Commerce.

It was pointed out Thursday that communities cannot coast—they must either go forward, or they will slide backward. The accomplishments of the past mean nothing unless there is a desire on the part of the present to improve what we have already gained.

Canyon has a large number of opportunities opened for immediate action.

Shall we take advantage of these opportunities, or shall we let them pass?

The Chamber of Commerce wants to stir into action every citizen in the community. They want every citizen to feel that it is their part to work for the upbuilding of Canyon during the coming year. Those who pay naturally will work and plan for civic improvements; those who refuse to pay to the upbuilding of the community naturally will idle in their attitude toward community improvement.

When the new officers swing into action and present their plans to the citizenship, let every man, woman and child in Canyon and Randall county fall into step and do their part in putting over the program.

VOTE NEXT TUESDAY

The News hopes that every citizen in Canyon shall go to the polls next Tuesday and vote on the proposed $10,000 bond issue.

Many people are always afraid of bond issues, but to The News the bond issue seems the only sensible way out of a serious situation.

Canyon needs the paving on the 66 blocks.

The federal government will give the city $17,676 if we put up $10,000.

Since all WPA jobs will end about the first of January, Canyon and Randall county will be forced to take care of the men now on WPA jobs unless we provide this street work for them. In other words, it seems we shall be forced to pay out much more than $10,000 between January and July to the men who cannot secure other labor, and at the same time entirely lose the $17,676 which the government is offering on the job.

Considering the fact that Canyon owes only $49,000 in bonded indebtedness and now has the lowest debts of any town of its size in Texas, it certainly would be a rather unwise policy not to go into this improvement program under the extremely favorable terms that are offered.

Let every citizen go to the polls next Tuesday. The bond issue should be either favored or rejected by a large vote.

It is indicated from Washington that recovery rather than reform is now the policy of the administration. Possibly the attitude of big business is having a deciding effect. While business men accepted many of the reforms proposed by the administration with a great deal of misgiving, most of them fell into line for the good of the cause. It has been pretty clearly determined that enough reform measures have been proposed for the good of business, and good of the nation. The recent recession of business throughout the nation was the danger signal. Having been given a free hand to advance along personal lines since the nation was founded, business resents so much regimentation that has been proposed as acts of recovery. The failure of many of the reform measures has been due to the inexperience of those who were attempting to make the reforms effective. The nation is not whipped, and every means should be taken to place prosperity on a safe basis.

FAIR QUESTION

"Ain't got one, teacher."

"Well, where are all the pencils?"

"The Rest of the Record"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

AUSTIN—In issuing the annual Thanksgiving Day Proclamation, I did so this year with the feeling that a little white-haired old lady of some seventy years had really written it.

Out of the heavy mail on my desk, I found last week a penciled letter with the writing shaken by the palsied hand of age. Its message typified the real spirit of the Pilgrim Mother of 1621 when the first day of Thanksgiving in America was observed. I felt humble in the presence of that letter for in it I could see the reason why this State of Texas has become so great. Back of it, I could see the pioneer mothers whose love and faith gave the steel to the courage of their men that enabled them to overcome hardships and build the mighty empire of Texas.

The dear old lady wrote that she only wanted to express appreciation for her monthly pension check. She added "while some people might think my room too bare and poorly furnished for comfort still to me it is home and for the pension check which makes this possible, I am thankful. My children are all gone and I would be lonely except for the memories of a long life which God has blessed with many friends and much happiness. To Him I shall give thanks on this Thanksgiving Day."

What a lesson to those of us more fortunate! From that letter I gained a feeling of humility, grateful that she should write me at this time.

I don't know how other governors feel about the penciled, often poorly written letters which we receive, but to me these are just as important if not more so, than the neatly typed, embossed letters from lawyers and bankers. These letters are from poor people who travel on a three-cent postage stamp to ask the governor of their state for help or advice. The least a governor can do is to read them and help in every way possible.

In many instances the letters are written in Czech or Spanish, or German and often illegible. These I have translated and returned to me promptly.

Yes, we have much for which to be thankful on this Thanksgiving Day. In contrast to war-torn and war-fearing countries, America will observe its day of Thanksgiving in security and peace confident that our ideals of democracy, the industry of our people, and the vast resources of our nation will enable these United States to meet crises under which other nations might crumble.

As Governor I feel grateful to the kind Providence that has guided this state and nation out of the depths of depression into an era of comparative prosperity. True there are many families whose tables will be pitifully bare on this Thanksgiving Day unless charitable organizations and kindly neighbors help them. But the bread lines which have threaded the nation in past years will not be as long nor will the suffering be as great—thanks to the humanitarian program of the President.

In our state there are still too many unfortunates for whom aid has been denied or for whom the aid given has not been sufficient to relieve their pain and need. Many aged needy, destitute children, helpless blind, and unemployables on the relief rolls will face a cheerless Thanksgiving Day.

As we who are more fortunate share the bounties of Thanksgiving dinner, let us remember that the obligation of our unfortunate neighbors has not been filled by partial payment. Let us remember the happiness and comfort brought to the old lady by the pension check, and whose brave attitude so typifies the real Thanksgiving Day spirit. Let us resolve that others like her but who are not being aided shall receive help.

There can be no turning back or any detour made from the humanitarian highway that we have traveled as an aftermath of the depression.

Tech Picadors Vanquish W. T. Yearlings 34-0

Deft blocking on punt returns accounted for three of the Texas Tech Picadors' touchdowns at Lubbock, which saw the Lubbock crew blank the West Texas State Yearlings 34-0, Friday afternoon.

In holding the heavier Picador team to a lone touchdown in the first half, the Yearlings displayed crafty defensive tactics. A letdown in the third quarter proved their unraveling. Shifty John Simms, 161 pound Lubbock quarterback from Mineral Wells, took two of Blackshear's punts for touchdowns on runs of 50 and 55 yards. C. L. Storrs, Tech halfback, accounted for the other sensational punt return when he took the kick in midfield and drove straight through the Yearling line for a score.

The principal scoring threat of the Yearlings presented itself in the early minutes of the second quarter, when Austin Wiggins, substitute end for Barron, recovered Dvoracek's fumble on the Tech nine. A pass play, Blackshear to Wiggins, was incomplete, and then Captain Jim Foust fumbled on the next play and lost the opportunity.

A barrage of forwards gave the Yearlings three first downs in the dying minutes of the game. One 17 yard completion, Sorgee to Johnson, placed the ball inside the Picador 40.

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling the germ-laden phlegm.

The Medical Profession has for many years recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients and now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by both adults and children.

Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief that you want. S. H. Condron Talks on Future of Canyon With Rotarians

S. H. Condron, newly elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, talked on the future of Canyon at the Rotary luncheon on Tuesday. Mr. Condron was introduced by Bob Foster.

"The future of Canyon should be on the heart and mind of every citizen of the community," stated Mr. Condron. Because the world is moving faster, more will happen in the next 10 years than has happened in the past 25 years. Mr. Condron called attention to the rapid shifts that are made in population in these modern days. No community stands still—it either goes forward, or it will go backwards. We must capitalize upon the energy and intelligence of all citizens of the community. It has been shown that not 5% of the talent of any community is put to work.

Mr. Condron stated that the Chamber of Commerce was the clearing house for the thought of the community. Citizens are urged to take ideas to the Chamber. Not all ideas presented may work, but the officials will use all ideas that they can possibly put to work.

Canyon as an ideal residential town of 10,000 to 15,000 in 1950 was visualized by Mr. Condron. Building an attractive residential town will bring business here, stated the speaker. Canyon now has three attractions of general, the College, the Palo Duro Park, and the Buffalo Dam, soon to be started. Canyon has schools and churches that are attractive to people. The town and county have low tax rates, with small bonded indebtedness. Building a town with the view of beauty and sanitation will attract people.

According to Mr. Condron Canyon needs: a good hotel; good tourist camp; more paving and sidewalks; a city plan to direct the building of the future; a road to Dimmitt; the expansion of W. T., which now is under way.

Much of this program may be accomplished. The city needs an advisory council, composed of representatives of all clubs of the town, meeting quarterly to plan for the city; a 12-months program for the public schools, with playground and musical direction during the summer; civic leaders who will direct along right lines; a desire to serve people within the trade territory, which is accomplished by the library, the hospital, improved business houses; the desire to be of service to the community; build good will. Build the community first, and trade will follow, believes Mr. Condron.

Visitors present were: John McCarty, N. F. Nelson, M. C. Burton, Ben Anderson, all of Amarillo; Dr. Robert Jarrett.

Pierce News

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kottenbrock have moved to Arkansas where they will make their home.

We the patrons, pupils and teacher, together with all others of the Pierce community, take this means of thanking the business houses of Umbarger, Canyon, and Amarillo for their purchasing of advertising to make it possible for us to have curtains for our school and community programs. There was a program at the school Friday night, Nov. 19. The children gave a program, followed by games for all.

There was a large crowd present for the program Friday night. The games which followed were enjoyed by all, after which candy was served. We certainly appreciated the visitors from Umbarger and Daniel, and we hope they will come again.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis had as their guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Blair, of Tulia.

We, of the Pierce community, are working to get us a roll stage curtain for the school, by securing business houses to advertise with us. We surely thank those who have or will help us. We shall have the full list ready next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moss and Jessie visited in the Gladston Davis home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boling and daughter, and Neita Jo Moore visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grabbe and Mr. and Mrs. McCraw Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Lee Peary of Amarillo was called Sunday by the Palo Duro church for regular second and fourth Sunday appointments.

The light skiff of snow Monday was hopeful, but not helpful. Moisture is so badly needed. Some will have to replant, but worms prevent sowing in the dry.

Mrs. Frank Moss is on the sick list.

We were sorry to hear of K. L. Pond losing his grandmother.

Wm. Grabbe is planning for more successful farming. He is having an irrigation well dug.

Skjold: How did you like my speech before the club last night?

Bjones: Now you're fishing for a compliment.

S. H. Condron Is Named Delegate to General Conference

Prof. S. H. Condron was elected a delegate from the Northwest Texas Conference to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the annual conference in Vernon last week. The General Conference will be held in Birmingham, Ala., next spring. Only seven laymen were elected from the conference, and the selection of Mr. Condron is a very distinct honor and recognition of his work in the church.

Mr. Condron conducted the services at the local Methodist church Sunday morning. He stated that the conference held last week in Vernon was the last annual conference to be held of the M. E. Church, South, and the General Conference to be held next year would be the last of its kind in the Church's history. Unification between the Methodist Church and the Methodist Church, South, has been voted almost unanimously by all conferences in the nation. The consolidation of the two churches will be completed when the General Conference is held next spring. After this is completed, all Methodist Churches in the nation will be under the same government. The Church was split nearly 100 years ago. The reunion comes after several attempts at unification.

Irrigation

COMES TO RANDALL COUNTY

Irrigation is here, and farmers will want the very best pumps that they can buy in order to put the water to the crops.

Don't experiment. The Kimball Pump has been tested and tried by more than 300 farmers right here on the Plains. You are asked to interview them and see what kind of service the Kimball has rendered for them.

Some of these pumps have been in operation for 15 or 20 years and the owners have never been out a single dime for repairs. What more could you expect of a pump?

In planning for your irrigation well, see us and get the authentic information on the Kimball.

Howdy folks, how are you?

I hope you are o. k. My rhumatiz is sumthin arful with this cold weather an all.

Whats thu matter Fairy, are you and Jimmie Carr startin' your second childhood days already. That must be the trouble, cause I never heard of anyone besides kindergarden kids cuttin' each others hair for pastime.

If the schule had an information bureau, I wonder who would be giving informaiton about hookey playin. I spect they would have to draw straws (that is if they could find that much straw). Or else they could set up a board to standardize the information. Joe Gill cud be the president, Renna Beth Bella cud be secretary and the others wud be J. D. Brietling, Tommy Butler, and Mabry Vandergriff, since they know more about it than any of us.

I shure wuz surprised when I cum up to schule the other day. I cud hardly believe my eyes becus out thar tumblin around wuz my old friends Mary Jo Avent and Margaret Nicholas. It seems she is part of the tumblin class up at the college.

So long, I'll be a seein you at the football game.

BY COMPARISON

Three hundred and eleven years ago about the time that our forefathers celebrated the first Thanksgiving, they were thankful when their children returned from a social and had not had their scalps taken off by Indians, but today parents are thankful when their children do not have their scalps taken off by reckless automobile drivers.

Our grandmothers were thankful that they had enough cotton from which they could spin thread to make heavy clothes. Our parents are usually thankful for our good clothes, but we often do not show our appreciation.

Some mother must have been thankful when her child invented some heavy types of candy, but today mothers are thankful when their children do not eat so much of this particular kind of candy.

Our forefathers were thankful when their horses did not get hurt or die; whereas, we are usually thankful if we do not have a flat tire when we go somewhere.

Our forefathers had many things for which they truly showed their thanks; our store is richer and fuller by far. Are we thankful in proportion?

Football Gridiron Means What?

Do you know where the gridiron got its name? Do you know of any grid about a football field? Do you know of any iron about a football field except the iron-like strength of the players? Well, I did not either.

I had to borrow Popeye's Jeep. He said, "Well let me think." The next day he came back and said that an iron grate with parallel bars, used for broiling meat or fish is called a gridiron. He also said that anything marked with parallel lines was called a gridiron; hence the football field with its parallel yardage lines causes it to be called a gridiron. Well thanks to the old Jeep.

Eston Breitling Feeds Grand Champion Lamb

Eston Breitling, vice president of the Canyon Chapter of Future Farmers of America, fed out the grand champion lamb as the judgment of Ed Rogers, superintendent of lamb division of the Fat Stock Show, and J. P. Smith, agriculture teacher of Claude, placed the sheep shown last Saturday at Burrow Lumber Co. The local chapter of F. F. The following boys received prize money in payment as follows: Eston Breitling, $4.00; Charles Gerald, $3.00; Duyane Ford, $2.50; Clifton Wesley, $2.25; Glen Persons, $2.00; Duyane Ford, $1.75; Mabrey Vandergriff, $1.50; Shaw Guy, $1.50; Lewis Tucek, $1.25; Shaw Guy, $1.00; Hugh Dalton, $1.00; Donnell Avent, $1.00, and Billy Davis, $1.00. Honorable mention was given to Dale Brock, Corlis Currie, Sherwood Wesley, and Roy Campbell for their work and spirit in the show.

"The boys have done a most excellent job in the care and feeding of the lambs which are the first projects of this year," said Milton Morris, agriculture teacher.

The judges said there were sheep in this showing that should rank in the prize money at the Fat Stock Show held in Amarillo in March.

Mr. Charley Frans, overseer of the McSpadden Stock Farm east of town, was the main speaker at the monthly meeting of the F. F. A. Chapter, November 17.

Frans Discusses Sheep

Mr. Frans talked about hogs, touching on the sheep and cattle enterprise. He talked of the importance of breeding to make a change in stock and of the training a breeder must have in all phases of live stock work and development.

Mr. Frans discussed swine and swine production more in detail than any other phase of livestock production. Since he has been a breeder of registered hogs for about 29 years, he knows a great deal about hogs. He expressed his knowledge to the members of the F. F. A. Chapter in plain "everyday" language from which the boys received many pointers to follow when they get hogs of their own.

COACH GERALD BROWN

T. L. Franke Gives Dog Show

"Good afternoon students, teachers, and parents as well. You may thank your superintendent for this interesting program we "--indicating his dogs—" are going to present," said T. L. Franke when he and his trained dogs began their variety show last Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the stage of the high school auditorium. This type of program was quite new to Canyon High School students.

Mr. Franke's little company has traveled all over the United States. In Tampa, Florida, they showed before 100,000 people. The dogs, Black Gold and Prince, performed many tricks, a few of which were leaping through two hoops while the hoops were held above Mr. Franke's head, walking a wet pole, jumping the rope, sitting up on a one inch bar, swinging on a trapeze, and obeying sign commands in a chair.

Prince Is Oldest Dog

Prince, the older dog, is 26 inches high, weighs 95 and 100 pounds, and is about five years old. He is a black, German police dog, and has been featured in several newsreels. Prince has been on the road about four years and has been trained since he was one and one-half months old.

Black Gold, Prince's son, is 28 inches high, and also weighs between 95 and 100 pounds. He is about three years old and has received all his training since he was three months old during programs in the schools.

Franke Enjoys Work

Mr. Franke, a short man of German descent, said he enjoyed the work with his dogs because of the companionship it offered. "Dogs just seem to be better pals than people," he said. Ever since he was ten years old, Mr. Franke has worked with animals. His traveling programs are a result of a hobby which developed into a profession. His home is in Hollywood. He acquired Prince in Hollywood and Black Gold in Washington.

"To get a dog to accomplish what Prince has," Mr. Franke said, "you must begin training it when it is young, not letting anyone handle it when it is a puppy. You must live alone with dogs and talk to them all the time. Never allow them to attack viciously because dogs are vicious enough without teaching. Never strike them when you are teaching them and do not teach them to perform for food."

Mr. Franke was scheduled to return to Hollywood last April, but he said there was "just something about the state of Texas" that made him stay. He plans to go back to Hollywood within the next two months.

Students Help

Beauty, Prince's mate, was bought by Mr. Franke at the Dallas Centennial. She was four years old when he got her, and so has not yet been taught anything but the fundamentals of obeying sign commands. Beauty was on the stage Wednesday, but did not perform. Two oddities of the program were a rooster with four legs, and a hen with one wing.

Sections of all grades attended this program.

Miss Frances Gill and Miss Viva Thomas, both teachers of Daniel, visited in school Monday afternoon. Miss Gill is an ex-student of '35, and Miss Thomas is an ex-student of Hereford high school.

Francis Elliston and Wesley Williams, both ex-students of '34 are in town this week. They have recently returned from California.

Coach Hutto started coaching football at Skellytown in '32 and '33. He also taught basketball. He went to Merkel High School in '35, and coached football there, winning all the games except the district game. Last year he came to Canyon High School. The Eagles lost the district championship by the toss of a coin last year.

Mr. Brown played football at Amarillo High School in '30 and '31. In '32 and '33 he played at Amarillo College.

Then he came to West Texas State Teachers College but did not get to play but a half season because of an injured foot. That year he also taught boxing and wrestling. He came to Canyon High School in '35 to be assistant coach.

Eagles and Hornets Battle For District Championship Wed.

COACH EMIL HUTTO

When the Canyon Eagles and the Tulia Hornets meet today at 2 o'clock, the title of District One B is at stake.

Last year the Tulia Hornets under Coach Hatcher Brown beat the Eagles on a muddy field early in the season in a conference game, and when the district was tied, the Hornets won from the Eagles by the toss of a coin. The Eagles will be going to Tulia to win the district title as well as avenge last year's loss.

The probable starting lineup:

Vandergriff	le-re	McCaslin
Brasuel	lt-rt	Honeysucker
Carr	lg-rg	Harris
Butler, T.	c-c	Stewart
Pope	rg-lg	Rogers
Crowley	rt-lt	Cameron
Hill (c)	re-le	Moon
Rusk (c)	q-q	Hale
Ford	lh-rh	Cook
Gill	rh-lh	Graham
Butler, D. A.	f-f	Arterburn

This game should draw one of the large crowds to witness a class B game this year. School in Canyon High will turn out at 12 o'clock. The Band and Pep Squad will go to Tulia to back the Eagles 100 per cent.

Duflot Will Speak To P. T. A.

Mr. J. L. Duflot, professor of sociology at West Texas State Teachers College, will talk to the Parent-Teachers Association on, "Parent and Child Relationship in the Home and School," December 7th at 7:30 o'clock at Canyon High School.

The last meeting which was held November 9th was to discuss the answers of the questionaire that was given in school on November 5. The result revealed that 95 per cent of the saudents would enjoy a social evening at home with the family; that the radio was the best-liked thing about the home; that only two-thirds of the students have a place to study at home and that the habits about father most annoying were drinking, use of proper language, and use of tobacco. Many other revealing facts were discovered.

At the meeting to be held December 7th, Mr. J. L. Duflot will show the underlying causes and the probable results of these answers. He will also offer suggestions and solutions.

Grant Sharman will entertain with a trombone solo.

Gridiron Gossip

This week the Eagles have been drilling for their game with the Tulia Hornets, which will decide the championship of District One B. The Hornets are favored in this game. They defeated Hereford 25 to 0, while the Eagles cleared Hereford by 12 to 0. The Hornets defeated Happy 37 to 0, while the Eagles beat Happy 32 to 0.

The winner of this game will play the Panhandle Panthers, champions of District Two B. The Panthers won this title with a 26 to 13 win over the Perryton Rangers. Panhandle has already beaten Tulia 6 to 0.

In District Three B, Wellington beat Memphis 44 to 0, while McLean beat Shamrock 27 to 0. This gave Wellington the undisputed championship of District Three B, with an undefeated and untied record in both conference and non-conference play.

In District Four B, Spur and Estelline tied 6 to 6, but Spur won on penetrations. Spur will now play Flomont for the championship of District Four B.

HOME EC CLASS GIVES PLAYLET

"Typical Morning Scenes at Ammond's Boarding Hall" was the title of the playlet given by the two freshman home economic classes in the high school assembly last Tuesday.

The characters were the matron and 22 girls. Part of the playlet was written by the girls in the freshman home economics classes. The costumes worn in the playlet were made by the girls who wore them.

The first scene showed the matron calling the girls; the second showed the girls waking up. The third scene consisted of exercises, while the fourth and last was a breakfast scene.

Those who took part in the program were: Mildred Lindsey, Dorothy Heath, Ardath Ann Cofer, Betty Guthrie, Lucille Davis, Mary Zachry, Katy Jean Black, Drennan Harding, Maurine Watts, Eva Griffin, Helen Hines, Melba Farr, Norma Lee Black, Doris Marie Ball, Inez Abbott, Ruth Madre, Bertha Hamlin, Claribel Newberry, Iris Dooley, Veronica Beckman, aMittie Ruth Davenport, Eula Bell Lovejoy, and Sue Terry.

Dorsett Speaks To Assembly

"Our Thanksgiving should come deeper than from the lips; it should come from the heart," said Rev. Alfred M. Dorsett, of the Presbyterian church, when he spoke in assembly, November 19.

"We must not catalog the things we do not have, but those we do have," said Mr. Dorsett.

He said we should be grateful for peace, and keep it no matter what the price. Right now parts of the world are torn up and ruined by war. The people in the United States should be thankful for peace. The war is destroying homes and lives of many. This is another thing we have to be thankful for: our homes and loved ones are not being destroyed by war.

Rev. Dorsett said, "We see too many things wrong and not enough right." He gave this example: A woman was looking at a famous picture in an art museum. She said, "That picture is not hanging straigh't.' She could not see the beauty of the picture for finding something wrong.

He said, "Be grateful for that thing which our Pilgrim forefathers had to be thankful for—our God."

Rev. Dorsett arrived in Canyon, November 1. He has been assistant pastor of the City Temple Church in Dallas for the past two years. He is now pastor of the Presbyterian Church here.

Parents Visit School; Grades Have Parties

Mrs. Ralph Harter's third grade pupils had an animal party for their parents during visiting week. It was a culminating activity of a unit of work on animals. This made the fourth party they had had since the beginning of school. The room mother, Mrs. W. L. Browning, had sent refreshments for two parties, and Mrs. E. H. Porter sent the refreshments for one party. The parents attending the party were: Mrs. T. W. Langston, Mrs. George McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spencer, Mrs. R. R. Rigsby, Mrs. E. W. Woods, Mrs. Guy Harp, Mrs. Roscoe Davis, Hilda Miller, Mrs. J. Guthrie, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. W. L. Browning, Mrs. Carl Schroeder, Clara Love, Mrs. H. G. Howard, Mrs. E. D. Abbot, Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. T. Thompson, Mrs. George Small, Mrs. Martha Morgan, Mrs. S. M. Bosley, and Little Miss Billie Neal McMillian.

More than 100 parents visited the grade school during education week. Several of the rooms had programs to entertain the parents, but as a whole they came to see the classroom work.

The 6-A class, under the direction of Miss Annie Ruth Eastus, has received many interesting things from the coast, such as sand from the beach of Miami, Florida, and many shells from various places on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, Pacific, and Atlantic Oceans.

Reproductions of Indian Paintings Are Displayed

Fifty reproductions of watercolor paintings by young Pueblo Indian artists are on display this month in the Mary E. Hudspeth room of Pioneer Hall.

The paintings, brillians in coloring, intricate of line, are produced to express the Indians' philosophy of life, shows the customs, symbolisms, and ceremonies of the people. Particularly outstanding are the decorative groupings of Awa Tsireh and the dancing costumes by Miguel Martinez. In one, Montezuma is shown summoning the animals from the caverns—according to tradition—that they may provide food for man. In another, ceremonial clowns are climbing a greased pole San Ildefonso and Sia Pueblos, in the quest for gifts.

The painters, all men, are of the Their work is being examined with much interest by students, teachers, and patrons of art. Large groups visit the museum on Sunday afternoons. It is open from 2 to 6 p. m. daily, including Sundays.

Four Bovine Quints See Chicago

The big city holds no lure for "Spotty," bovine mother of quintuplets and her four calves, shown above during their tour of Chicago with Owner Hiram Long, left, of Avery, Okla., and Herman Bundesen, Chicago health commissioner, right. The calves, as rare among cattle as quintuplet children are among humans, were one of the attractions of a Milk Week celebration. "Spotty's" fifth calf died at birth.

A little bird told me:
"THERE IS NO FASTER STARTING WINTER GASOLINE
- than Phillips 66 Poly Gas"
Now...an amazingly simple, inexpensive way to end cold-weather starting trouble

"Amazingly simple"... because all you have to do is fill the tank with Phillips 66 Poly Gas. "Inexpensive"... because this high test gasoline costs no more than ordinary low-test motor fuels.

As World's Largest Producer of natural high test gasoline, we can afford to put the high-pressure right into our product instead of into our advertising. We make Phillips 66 Poly Gas higher in test . . . custom-tailor it 100% to your climate . . . and add extra energy units by the POLYmerization process.

The very first time you try this sensational winter gasoline, you will note the split-second starting and faster warm-up. Besides, mileage is increased by cutting the need for wasteful choking.

Don't wait! Start getting faster starting tomorrow morning by getting Phillips 66 Poly Gas this afternoon. Remember, it will cost you less to run your car this winter, if you always stop for gasoline at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Floyd Studer Gives Coins To Museum

Latest addition to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is the Floyd W. Studer Coin Collection.

The collection gives a typewritten report on the different mediums of exchange with examples of each type. Included in the group are a number of couries, small colored shells, used as money in the south sea islands.

In the history of U. S. money is a shingle used as barter in Michigan in 1834. Soon after the invention of pins, merchants held pin day when pins served as cash. This was in an attempt to popularize the use of pins. A packet of pins are also in the collection.

Razors were used by the ancient Chinese, and modern Chinese money is taken from the type of rings on the razors. The Indians and many other peoples have used colored feathers.

Besides these odd purchase pieces are groups of money of different countries and past ages.

The boy looked pleased.

"It ought to be," he replied. "I've been delivering groceries around here for two years."—Tid Bits.

Milk money... is HOME TOWN money

Steady circulation of milk money means steady business in a dairy community.

Milk money flows back into the community to the dairy farmers and to the men at the milk plant. It then circulates to the local storekeepers, the doctor, the dentist, and other home town people. It helps support schools, libraries, churches, hospitals, fire and police departments, and other home institutions.

It is Borden's job and Borden's privilege to contribute to this steady circulation of milk money by building new markets and bigger markets for milk and its products.

So on this Thanksgiving Day we renew our pledge of service and of improving that service in every way possible.

Buffalo Basketball Team Is the Tallest In World

From the lofty height of six feet-plus, members of the "World's Tallest Basketball Team" at West Texas State are looking at the baskets this week instead of at football goals.

Not all of the basketball aspirants are six feet tall or above, but look at these:

Conway Butler, Turkey—Senior, 20 years old, weight 187, height 6 feet one inch.

Raymond Shackelford, Tell—Junior, 21 years old, weight 200, height 6 feet 9 inches.

Lother Stephenson, Anton—Junior, 20 years old, weight 200 pounds, height 6 feet 6½ inches.

Craig Walling, Farwell—Senior, 23 years old, weight 190, height 6 feet 3½ inches.

These are lettermen starters from last year's outfit. Butler and Stephenson are forwards, Shackelford is a center, and Walling is a guard.

Other squadmen and sophomores available, with their heights, include:

Elton Amburn, Wellington, 6 feet 2 inches; Melvyn Cullender, Hartley, 6 feet 4 inches; Jack Edmondson, Memphis, 6 feet 1 inch; Joe Hayes, Allison, 6 feet 10 inches; Dewey Johnson, Abernathy, 6 feet 4 inches; Donald Kendrick, Groom, 6 feet 2 inches; Carl Matney, Vernon, 5 feet 11 inches; Milton Neilson, Sparton, 6 feet 2½ inches; J. E. Pietzsch, Amarillo, 6 feet 1 inch; Ernest Schur, Vernon, 5 feet 11 inches; George Taylor, Lockney, 6 feet 2 inches; Odell Washington, Matador, 5 feet 11 inches; Foster Watkins, Dumas, 5 feet 10 inches.

Coach Al Baggett is working on the Buffs' schedule but it will not be completed until next month, when the tall boys will start the season's competition. Indications are that, because their fame as the "Tallest" and their skill on the floor, the Buffaloes will be in demand for engagements. Coach Baggett also expects to bring some of the best teams in the Southwest to Burton Gymnasium.

He closed the football season Saturday, when the Buffaloes defeated the N. M. M. I. Bronchos 41-20.

Chamber Commerce

highly praised the work of the organization in the past, and called attention to six projects which are possible for the future work of the organization, as follows: Water conservation; highway southwest to Dimmitt; hotel; scenic highway through Palo Duro; expanding facilities of W. T.; advertising residential advantages of Canyon. Under the last heading were noted the advantages of Canyon: state record in sewer connections, pure water supply, large town conveniences with small town friendliness, attractive small city parks, hospital, schools, churches, excellent utilities, paved streets. The speaker emphasized the fact that if the citizens did not have confidence in the future so many would not have gathered to think about and plan for the future.

Outline Work

Irby Carruth talked on "What Are We Going To Do About It?"

Mr. Carruth praised the fine work that had been done by the Chamber of Commerce in the past, and the spirit of co-operation which had been shown by those who worked in the organization. The greatest weakness of Canyon is the fact that so few business and professional leaders are taking an active part in community building. "What a power there would be in Canyon if all citizens were taking an active part in community building," remarked the speaker.

Mr. Carruth pointed to the fact that communities cannot "just hold on." A community either goes forward or slips backward. Communities cannot coast along on the reputation made by the old timers.

County As Unit

With more schools coming to Canyon, it is possible that Randall county be developed into one big community both so far as schools and business is concerned. Service should be the watchword of every person in Canyon. Neighbor should not criticise neighbor; all should work together; all business and professional people should back the organizations that are building the institutions which will improve Canyon.

T. C. Thompson highly praised the Chamber of Commerce for the work that had been accomplished during the past year. He believed that many people criticise when they do not know what is being accomplished. He urged that all citizens become acquainted with the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, and then co-operate with the officers. Mr. Thompson also urged support for the city and county officials. With the citizens banded together, great things can be accomplished in Canyon during the future.

Officers Are Named

Clyde Warwick presented the report of the nominations committee and the officers were elected unanimously.

Mr. Warren closed the program by expressing the appreciation of the retiring officers for the fine support that had been given the organization during the past. He urged that all citizens get behind the new officers for the coming year in order to put over the program that is possible for Canyon to accomplish.

"One moment," said the teacher, "What is the meaning of 'Eureka'?"

"'Eureka' means 'I have found it.'"

The boy hesitated, then ventured, hopefully: "The soap, sir."
